Even if open enrollment for health insurance has ended, you may have options.

You may be able to get health insurance if you:

- Have a qualifying life event, such as:
 - › Getting married
 - › Having a baby
 - › Losing health care coverage

These events and others may qualify you for a special enrollment period through HealthCare.gov.

- Qualify for free coverage through the Oregon Health Plan (OHP). You can apply any time at OHP.Oregon.gov.

If you are not sure what you qualify for, go to HealthCare.gov to find out.

A special enrollment period is a time outside of open enrollment when you may be able to change plans or get health insurance due to certain life events. If any of the following happen, you can go to HealthCare.gov and apply for coverage:

- Lose health care coverage
- Get married
- Have a baby
- Adopt a child or have a child placed with you for foster care
- Get divorced or legally separated and lose health insurance
- Move to the state
- Get released from incarceration
- Gain citizenship or lawful presence in the U.S.
- Are abandoned or experience domestic violence
- Have a change in income
- Age off your parents' plan

For a full list of qualifying events, go to go.usa.gov/x57qy.

HealthCare.gov is the only place where you can get:

- Tax credits: Help paying for premiums (the amount you pay each month to have insurance). If you qualify, you get your credit each month or once a year.
- Cost-sharing reductions: Lower costs when getting care. You must choose a silver level plan and meet certain income limits to qualify.

People who earn less than the amounts shown below may qualify for financial help to pay for coverage.
